MINUTES
BOARD MEETING
June 17, 2002
(Minutes are in italics.)

Chairman Williams called the meeting to order at 4:05 p.m. Board members in attendance were Janie Garza, Taren Hollister, and Janis Wiggins. Vice-Chairman Wayne Moore and Mr. Kuykendall were absent. Also in attendance were Dr. Douglas A. Beran, Executive Director, Mary Feys, Administrative Technician, Beverly Williamson, Director of Education, and Joe Pitner, Office of the Attorney General. The following individuals represented the Texas Association of Tonsorial Artists: Booker T. Spencer (Houston); Osokwe Street (Austin); Cornell Hill (Austin); Linda Connor, Executive Board (Austin); Brandy Jones (Austin). Representing the State Association of Barber Schools were Juan A. Garcia (President), W.D. Wagner (Vice President), and Ronnie Brown (Treasurer). Others in attendance were Ken Garthune (Texas Building and Procurement Commission) and Joe Deering (State Office of Risk Management).

1. Consider and possibly take action on moving the barber examinations from Roffler School of Hair to the Frank Joseph Building, 5717 Balcones Drive, Austin, Texas.

Chairman Williams introduced the item and called the question. Mrs. Wiggins made the motion, seconded by Mrs. Garza, and the motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Williams recognized Ronnie Brown for his help and support given to Mr. Williams and to the Board. Mr. Williams directed that a commendation should be presented to Mr. Brown.

Mr. Williams adjourned the meeting at 4:10 pm.
